A large company sat down at the table, and on returning o the dawing room one of them asked Booth, as a special favor to them all, to repeat the Lord's Prayer. He signified his willi goess to gratify them, and all eyes were fixed upon him. He slowly and reverently arose from his coair, crembling with the bur den of two great conceptions. He had to reaize the character, attributes and presence of the Almighty Being he was to address. He was to transform himself into a poor, sincing, and 81 101 acres; is in a high state of cultivation stumbling, benighted, needy supplicant, off reing hon age, asking bread, pardon, light and guidagee. Says one of the company who was present: "It we wonderful to watch the play of emotion that clovulsed his countenates. He became deadly pile, and his eyes, turned trem bling apward, were wer wish tests. As yet he had not spoken. The silence could be fell; it had become abscutely painful until at last the spell was broken, as if by an electric shrek, as his ren toned voice syllabled torch, 'Our Father, which art in heaven, e'c., with a pathos and fervit solemnity which thrilled all hearts.
